Long ago, in the days before Israel had a king, there was a famine in the land. So a man named Elimelech, who belonged to the clan of Ephrath and who lived in Bethlehem in Judah went with his wife Naomi and their two sons Mahlon and Chilion to live for a while in the country of Moab. While they were living there Elimelech died and Naomi was left alone with her two sons, who married Moabite girls, Orpah and Ruth. About ten years later the sons died and Naomi was alone except for her daughter-in-laws.
