5th and 6th graders: follow the directions to find the number.

1. How many people went up the mountain?
2. Multiply that number by the number of people who appeared during the transfiguration.
3. Add the number of animals of the same kind that Noah took aboard the ark.
4. Multiply by the number of fingers on your hand.
5. Subtract the number you get when you add $1+1=$ _____.
6. Divide by 4 to get the number of disciples Jesus had.

5th and 6th graders:

Peter, James and John wanted to stay up on the mountain but Jesus said, "No, we must go down. I still have work to do." Can you name a few things Jesus still had to do? Think about what he does on Earth after this point.

Now, as Jesus' disciples, we are to be like him. What do you think the work is that Jesus would have you do. Write down a few things.
