3rd-6th graders

Write a prayer. Instead of praying out loud sometimes I write a "letter to God." I tell Him about how I feel, what I need, how much I need Him and how thankful I am. Below you can read two prayers Rhoda may have written in one day! Then turn on the back and write a prayer to God about your life. He is listening.

Dear God,

We really need
Your help today!
Wicked King Herod
just last week cut off the head of James and now he has Peter in prison too! There are 16 guards for one prisoner! Herod plans to kill Peter in the morning. Please send help right away! I love you and entrust Peter into Your hands. In Jesus' name
amen. Rhoda

Dear Lord God,

*Thank you for the marvelous miracle You did last night for our friend Peter! It was funny Lord when no one believed me when I saw Peter at the door! It was wonderful to hug him and welcome him in to tell the story about how You sent the angel to set him free.
Now please take care of him so that Herod can't touch him again. Thank You God for loving me and answering my prayers. In Jesus' name, amen.
Love, Rhoda*
