

Preschoolers and Kindergarteners:

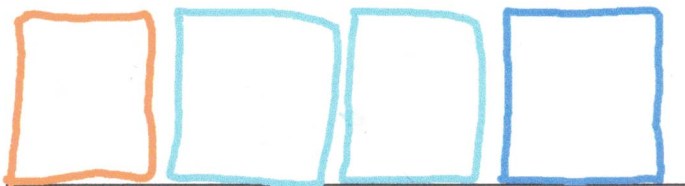

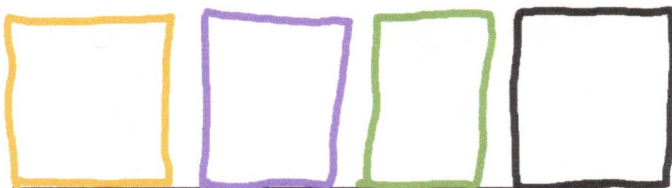

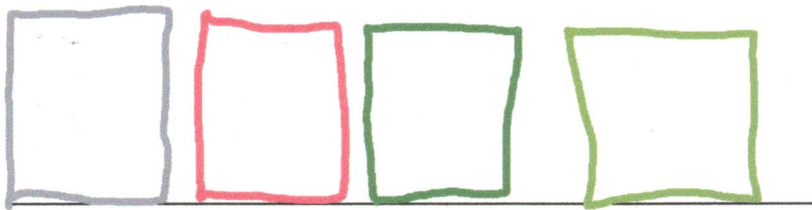

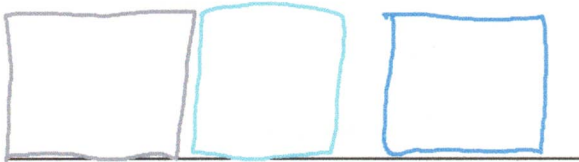

On this page is the food that was hiding in the tent. Color it. Then color the tent on the next page. Cut out the tent and cut open the door so you can peek inside. Then glue the edges of the tent over the food. This way the food can be hidden in the tent. Then tell the story to someone of how God provided for the hungry people.

Kindergarteners- 1st graders: Match the colors of the letters to the boxes. Write the correct letter in each box.

A	D	E	F	G
H	M	O	T	V

2nd-3rd-4th Graders: Fit the words into the spaces below.
Cross them off as you use them.

Exceeding, abundantly above all we ask or think, that's what my God can do.

The song goes on to say: He can save and He can heal. I'm so glad that I know He's real. Exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think. That's what my God can do. What do you need God to do that is even bigger than you would know how to ask for it? _____

2nd-3rd-4th graders: Use the Pigpen code to solve the paper. If you never did one before, you think, "Which letter or "pig" would live in this section of the pen?" For instance since in the pigpen  the letter e lives in a section that is all boxed in... you know that this  pen belongs to the letter e.

In the city of Samaria, there was no _____ left. The enemy army had surrounded the city and cut off all food supplies from their gardens and fields. The _____ was wearing sackcloth under his clothes and thought it was all Elisha's fault. When he sent to have Elisha _____

God gave Elisha a warning and a message for the king. The message was that by _____ there would be plenty of food. It was unbelievable. God did it this way.

The enemies heard _____ that tricked their brains and deserted their camp. God opened the _____ of heaven and gave them food to eat.

5th-6th graders: find the words from the memory verse song in the puzzle below.

Exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think, that's what my God can do.

The whole song says: Exceeding, abundantly, above all we ask or think, that's what my God can do. He can save and He can heal. I'm so glad that I know He's real. Exceeding abundantly above all we ask or think, that's what my God can do. What do you need Him to do for you?

5th-6th Graders: The four lepers were starving to death. They would have been thrilled to have just one half of a slice of bread. Instead, God provided a whole camp full of tents and animals and more food than they could have imagined possible. It would be like me asking God for one cup of water and Him giving me a river of crystal clean water instead. For each item I listed on the left write down what God might do that would be so much more than I asked.

I ask God for:	God might give me:
1 glass of water	A river of pure water.
1 glass of milk
1 sandwich
A "c" on a test
My mom to feel better
My cucumber plant to give me one cucumber
