Preschoolers and Kindergarteners. Build a tower out of whatever blocks you have at your house. They can be legos or wooden blocks or plastic ones or even shoe boxes. See how high you can make it and have a parent take a picture of it. Send me the picture! Then knock it down. Remember the people at Babel sinned when they were so proud of themselves.

The people were proud and strong in themselves and what they could do. They thought that people were pretty smart and that a person can do anything if he/she tries hard enough. This is what some people still believe. They will tell you. "You have the power to be anything you want to be or do anything you want to do." They believe that the power lies inside human beings.

Look up John 15:5. That is the truth. Jesus Christ said it. Write it here:

When someone tells you that you can do anything because you are so smart, or so fast, or so strong, how can you answer that person?

Who gave you your abilities?

5th and 6th graders: I am not a poet, but maybe you are! Try writing a poem about this lesson and shaping it on your paper like the shape of the Tower of Babel. Below is my example!

They wanted to make for themselves a name. That was their downfall. That was their shame. God looked down and what did He see? Many many people as proud as could be!

5th-6th graders. I made this paper a long long time ago and maybe it is way too hard for you. But you can try it if you like word searches!

1. Now the whole earth used the same language and the same words.
2. And it came about as they journeyed east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.
3. And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly." And they used brick for stone, and then used tar for mortar.
4. And they said, "Come let us build for ourselves a city, and a tower whose top will reach into heaven, and let us make for ourselves a name; lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."
5. And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.
6. And the Lord said, "Behold, they are one people, and they all have the same language. And this is what they began to do, and now nothing which they purpose to do will be impossible for them.
7. "Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language that they may not understand one another's speech.
8. So the Lord scattered them abroad from there over the face of the whole earth; and they stopped building the city.
9. Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of the whole earth; and from there the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of the whole earth.
