

Preschool:

WHEN I DON'T GET MY WAY... I get to make a Choice. Ahab in the story made many sad choices. What do you do when you don't get your way? Cut out the choices. Have someone read the choices to you. Then decide whether it is a sad Choice or good Choice. Finally glue the choices in the right columns.

Sad Choice 	Good Choice
Lay on the bed and pout	Say unkind words
Take the toy from someone else	Be mean and push and shove
Say "That's okay"	Share with someone else
Wait for my turn	Find something else to play with

Kindergarteners and 1st Graders: God has 10 Commandments that we should all know. When I went to write them, some of the words were replaced by pictures. Can you fill in the words above the correct pictures? Then read the 10 rules with a parent.

2nd -3rd Graders: Match the cards that go together in a game. First cut them out. Lay them flat, face down. Take turns turning over to and trying to make the real sentences. If you get a match, hold it near you. The most matches wins.

Naboth....was killed because King Ahab coveted his vineyard.	Elisha was a...
...young prophet and was Elijah's helper.	God sent Elijah... to the vineyard to yell at Ahab.
King Ahab...coveted, stole and killed to get what he wanted.	Coveting is...
....wanting what someone else has.	You shall not murder.
You shall not steal.	Be sure your sin...
...will find you out.	God's 10 commandments...are still important today!

4th-6th Graders: First do the simple multiplication problems and fill in their corresponding letters. Then decide what vowels fit on the other lines.
