In Iconium, Paul and Barnabas 5 spoke in such a manner that a great multitude believed. They spoke 6 boldly with reliance on the 11 Lord. People started picking on them so they left town and continued to 8 preach the gospel elsewhere. In Lystra they healed a lame man who had 4 faith to be made well. People thought they were Zeus and Hermes and started to worship them. Paul and Barnabas said, "We are just men telling you to turn from worthless idols and worship the 7 living God." The Jews came from the other towns starting persecuting them. They 2 stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city. While the disciples 3 stood around Paul, he arose. In Derbe they preached and many believed. They went right back to Antioch and strengthened the 1 souls of the believers there. They appointed 10 elders in every church. When the journey finished they went back home and told all the things God had 9 done through them.
