5th and 6th Graders: Use the clues to solve the crossword puzzle.

Pharaoh, ruler of (11 across), had decreed that all (7 across) ( means Jewish) (9 down) (means male) babies were to be (5 across). One family decided to disobey the order. Instead they made a small (4 across) and hid their little boy in it along the (3 down) bank. Pharaoh's (6 down) came to (2 down) in the river and discovered the baby. She decided to care for him. The baby's older (12 across) had been watching and volunteered to get someone to (8 across) the baby. Of course she went and got her (10 across). The baby lived with Pharaoh's family and was given the name (1 down) which means drawn out of the water.
